

I totally oppose the weakening of the Indiana telephone privacy laws! I think these laws are the best things going for us today, and to weaken this law would allow others to potentially do the same thing....ultimately reducing the benefit to no benefit at all.

Sincerely,
Sharron R. Overby